

Schoology Parent Access Codes

In our classes, we use Schoology to keep track of homework, submit assignments, conduct online discussions, and to communicate with one another. We would really like it if the parents joined Schoology as well.

With a parent account you can view your child’s homework including overdue assignments, see the homework they submit, and track your child’s progress towards mastering learning standards.

To create your own Schoology parent account, go to www.Schoology.com and follow these directions:

Step One: On the www.Schoology.com page, click on Sign Up then click on Parent.

That’s it – you’re now signed up for Schoology. You can add additional children once you are logged into Schoology. Each child has their own code, but you can access them all through one parent account.
